At the end of December, WilHunter had a total remaining contract backlog of approximately USD 265 million.

The Company's contract backlog per the date of this report until year-end 2016 is shown below.

Capital Requirements and Dividend

The Company's intention is to pay a regular dividend in support of its main objective to maximise returns to shareholders. The third dividend payment was paid during the quarter and payments are expected to continue on a quarterly basis. In the case of attractive growth opportunities the company will endeavor to maintain a meaningful dividend distribution.

Organisation

At the end of Q4 2013, Awilco Drilling's Aberdeen based employees numbered 32 permanent personnel supported by 2 contractors. Awilco Drilling Pte Ltd offshore personnel numbered 206 permanent personnel. The Awilhelmsen Group continues to supply some support personnel via the management agreement.

Market Outlook

Availability in the UK mid-water semi-submersible drilling market remains tight in H1 2014. There is however potential for some rig capacity in H2 2014 & 2015, as some existing rig contracts draw to a conclusion and follow-on work has yet to be confirmed.

Statement of Responsibility

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge, the condensed set of financial statements for the fourth quarter of 2013, which has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Statements, gives a true and fair view of the Company's consolidated assets, liabilities, financial position and results of operations, and that the interim management report includes a fair review of the information required under the Norwegian Securities Trading Act section 5-6 fourth paragraph.

Forward Looking Statements

This Operating and Financial Review contains certain forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Forward-looking statements are sometimes, but not always, identified by such phrases as "will", "expects", "is expected to", "should", "may", "is likely to", "intends" and "believes". These forward-looking statements reflect current views with respect to future events and are, by their nature, subject to significant risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. These statements are based on various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including Awilco Drilling's examination of historical operating trends. There are a number of factors that could cause actual results and developments to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements, including the competitive nature of the offshore drilling industry, oil and gas prices, technological developments, government regulations, changes in economical conditions or political events, inability of the Company to obtain financing on favourable terms, changes of the spending plan of our customers, changes in the Company's operating expenses including crew wages, insurance, dry-docking, repairs and maintenance, failure of shipyards to comply with delivery schedules on a timely basis and other important factors mentioned from time to time in our report.

Note 4 - Segment information

The company owns the semi submersible rigs WilHunter and WilPhoenix. The company is only operating in the mid water segment in the UK sector of the North Sea. The potential market for the rigs will be the international drilling market. As the rigs are managed as one business segment, the Company has only one reportable segment.

Note 5 - Restricted cash

The company has restricted cash of USD 1 million which has been deposited in relation to the forward hedge agreements as detailed in Note 10. The restricted cash is classified as "Cash and cash equivalents" in the Statement of Financial Position.

Note 6 - Corporation taxes

If the operation of the rigs change among foreign jurisdictions, and the methods of taxation in these jurisdictions varies, the effective tax rate may be subject to change.

Corporation tax provision is based on the tax laws and rates in the countries the rigs are operated and where the rigs are owned. During Q4 the rigs were operational and average tax rates have been applied consistent with the prevailing average tax rate for the year.

Note 7 - Capital commitments

Outstanding Capital Commitments as at the end of Quarter 4 were USD 6.9 million.

Fair value of foreign currency forward contracts

$562k

The foreign currency forward contracts were entered into in order to minimise the Group's exposure to losses resulting from adverse fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates on monthly operating expenses. The fair value of the forward exchange contracts, as shown above, is recorded as other income in the Statement of Comprehensive Income and classified as accruals in the Statement of Financial Position.
